

The school food

Pessi, Lorenzo, Jennifer and Anaïs

France

- 1) We take starter / dessert of your choice with the dish on a tray.
- 2) It's 4,80 euros per meal to eat in the canteen.
- 3) The school dices the menu and tells the company that brings it.

Belgium

- 1) In my school we eat in the canteen, we take a tray, we go near the canteen and we ask what we want from the menu. And then we pay with a school card that our parents charge with their money.
- 2) Complete meal: 5 euros
 - Meal: 3,50 euros
 - Dessert / cookies: 1 euros
 - Soup: 0,50 euros
- 3) The school dices the menu and tells the company that brings it.

Italy

- 1) In my school we eat in the classroom they give us cutlery, napkins and glasses and bring us food, first second course and fruit.
- 2) We eat for free but our parents pay to let us eat.
- 3) I think but I'm not sure that the school decides the menu and tells the company that brings the food to school.

Finland

- 1) We eat our meals in the school's canteen. Lunch is around the midday and all students have to eat in school. The meal consists of a main course (for example meatballs with mashed potatoes), salad, bread (usually rye bread or crisp bread) and drinks (water or milk).
- 2) The pride of finnish people is our school food, because it's free here.
- 3) The school food in Finland is based on a recommendation for meals which the finnish goverment has helped to compose. Arkea is a company which makes all scool food in Turku.
